THE 1992
QUAKER OF GUILFORD COLLEGE

The woods would be very silent if the only birds that sang were the ones that sing the very best.

- Henry David Thoreau

As the sun makes it new Day by day make it new Yet again make it new.

- Confucius, The Great Learning
Translated by Ezra Pound

It is, Sir, as I have said, a small college. And yet there are those of us who love it.

- Daniel Webster, Dartmouth College V. Woodward

Education in the long run is an affair that works itself out between the individual student and his opportunities. . . Offer opportunities, leave the student to his natural reaction on them, and he will work out his personal destiny.

- William James, Stanford's Ideal Destiny

Nothing pains some people more than having to think.

- Martin Luther King, Strength to Love

In fact, all paths lead to knowledge; because the vilest and stupidest action teaches us something about villainess and stupidity, and may accidentally teach us a good deal more.

- George Bernard Shaw, Doctor's Dilemma

Socrates. . . I am a teacher, and take money; this accusation has no more truth in it than the other. Although, if a man were really able to instruct mankind, to receive money for giving instruction would, in my opinion, be an honour.

- Plato, Apology

From the nineteenth-century view of science as God, the twentieth-century has begun to see it as a devil. It behooves us now to understand that science is neither one nor the other.

- Aime Meyer

Only connect . . .

- E.M. Forster, Howards End

When I create a sculpture, I don't have to work hard or struggle to achieve brilliance. . . when I see a slab of stone or marble, I can envision a statue. All I have to do is carve away any part of it that doesn't belong.

- Michelangelo

"The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand;
The sun goes down but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains;

Dale, Mom, Dad...I finally made it...Thanks for being there. thanks to everyone who pushed me to be what I am today. I love you all...

Guilford—What a great experience. I'll never ever forget it. Baseball #7—one in a million—Coach Fulton—thanks for all the help—If it wasn't for you and my teammates, The Pittsburg Pirates wouldn't know who I am. Milner 146—known as the most athletic room in the world. Room dog "Posse" Calvin Hunter, the boy has much talent. Also to TBC-C Tony, Billy, Calvin and the dancer Chris. Fellows, it's been fun. Football, my first and final year, what memories. Never underestimate a small 5'9" 160 lb. person.

My biggest dream came true—PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL—PITTSBURG PIRATES.

GOD BLESS EVERY-ONE!

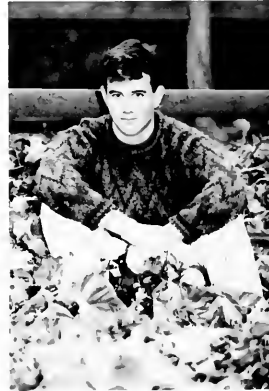

daniel m. williamson

"Get born. Keep warm. Short pants. Romance. Learn to dance. Get dressed. Get blessed. Try to be a success. Please her. Please him. Buy gifts Don't steal. Don't lift. Twenty years of schooling And they put you on the day shift."

—Bob Dylan

College would have been different (though not necessarily better) without the likes of Butch (the Pope, baseball and Chevy Chase), Chris n' Sidwell, Mom, Dad, Haymond (Beam and insulin), Willie G (go fish), Mark (thou speaks masterly), Morton (lord willin'), Bill Faulkner, Clay, Matt, Scottyong, Perry Farrell, Stephen, HayD, WQFS, the Jimmy-Buffett-Must-Die Fellowship, Kinsley, Cory, Greg, Buddy Revelle, and of course AKW—beautiful, beautiful girl from the North, love you 'til Friday (or even longer).

Guilford has been such a building block in my life but it would have been nothing without the people that made my time here so special: Matt—How can I tell you how much I love you? Sunrises, sunsets, banging head boards, breakfast in bed, Thanksgiving, Easter, Christmas, how 'bout that 21st b-day, walks on the beach, in the snow. I can't imagine Guilford memories without you. Jen & Laura—thanks for always being there—watch out for those Ohio turtle-neck men. "Flush." Vic—breath, "brick-jokes"—you'll make a great teacher someday. And of course Mom, Dad, & Jon—you mean the world to me. You have given me so much and stood by me all the way—most! W. Soccer—I have so much faith in you. Go get 'em.

Guilford gave to me, now I give to it. Always remember: Gardez le temps!

First of all, a VERY special "Thank you" to the people who made coming to Guilford possible—Mr. and Mrs. William Carson, I owe you so much and am so grateful for all that you have done. God bless you. Janet and Van—ditto—you both are always someone I know I can talk to and trust. Thank you both, for all the wonderful support and encouragement along the way. Best friend—we've grown a lot over these past four years, and we final made it. No matter what—you and your friendship means more than you know. Thanks for everything—Karla, Tara, and Lori—what can I say? You guys are totally crazy. Sluts. Party animals. Don't ever change!

To the one who has taught me the most important thing in life—LOVE. Stan, you've helped me through so much over the past four years. You've taught me what it means to be proud of who I am. You are always there to give a hug when I'm feeling down. I love you so much.

"In the morning mist I walked with wavering steps towards a mysterious and wonderful shore. Dawn was contending against the last stars... dreams were still hovering, and my soul, in the grip of dreams, prayed to unknown gods.

In the cold white day I tread, as before, and a lonely road in an unknown land. The mist has lifted, and the eye sees clearly how difficult is the mountain track, and how far, far away is still all that I saw in my dreams.

And until midnight I shall be walking with fearless steps toward the shore of my desires, to where, on a mountain beneath new stars, my promised temple, all ablaze with triumphal lights, awaits me.

Graduation... a little delayed, but so important. Guilford... fun sometimes, boring sometimes, frustrating and hard work most of the time.

Freshman year with BOD. Allison, we're the only ones left. Sophomore shenanigans in the Pines. Dré what were you thinking? Lis & Chantelle, let's boycott 146. Junior year in Guadalajara. Terri, Bekki, Ami lost in DF and a worried Andy. That's CULTURAL experience. Dana, Michelle, how'd you meet the staff at Dadio?!? Anonymous note on my door from JR. Senior year in the apartments. Despite the differences and the bills, we survived!

Thanks to all my friends. The old are as important as the new. Love to my family, still strong and supportive, & Beanie.

Long afterward, Oedipus, old and blinded, walked the roads. He smelled a familiar smell. It was the Sphinx. Oedipus said, "I want to ask one question. Why didn't I recognize my mother?" "You gave the wrong answer," said the Sphinx. "But that was what made everything possible," said Oedipus. "No," she said. "When I asked, What walks on four legs in the morning, two at noon, and three in the evening, you answered, Man. You didn't say anything about woman." "When you say Man," said Oedipus, "you include women too. Everyone knows that." She said, "That's what you think."

Oh my Gott! I'm graduating!? To roommates Mary, Bekki & Doug, too—sticking through these years, giving support, confidence, being there to listen and the great times we've had: coffee talk, "I'm so out of it," fall break '91, summer cookouts, pass out, Serendipity, "Hym goin do dalk lige dees to de end of de hwar." Mexico semester—spades, Andy, Amy, Fannie, lost in D.F., Tapulpa: They made me drink nine of those! Somos contentos, contentos, contentos, a gusto! The rest of Guadalajara '90 who made it the best semester! Bookstore crowd—fun times during and after bookstore hours. Tennis—no more running! HH and marathon matches, Coach—making tennis a great experience. Mom, Dad, Robyn—your love, advice and support helped keep me plugging away. The others (Heat, Kady) who made Guilford a fun, learning experience and a great place to spend four years.

I want to thank the LORD for the strength. Thanks to Mom and Dad for providing me with the love and support. Thanks to the 1991 Quaker football team and coaches, it is a memory I will cherish the rest of my life. I will never forget the great 4 years I have spent with my brothers: Greg, Chip (SILK), Clyde, Murry, Lambert, Ragan, Herndon Derby Pauly, Shannon, Rodney and Baker. Hope we can coach someday together and the business brothers can support us. Thanks for all the great times in baseball and good luck.

Thanks to Alicia and the wonderful times we spent together. Some memories: winks across the cafe, the airport, and the trip up north. You are such a SWEETHEART! Good luck with school and soccer. Always remember to have faith in the Lord! And that I love you!

Slowly the west reaches for clothes of new colors which it passes to a row of ancient trees. You look, and soon these two worlds both leave you, one part climbs toward heaven, one sinks to earth, leaving you, not really belonging to either, not so hopelessly dark as that house that is silent, not so unswervingly given to the eternal as that thing that turns to a star each night and climbs—leaving you (it is impossible to untangle the threads) your own life, timid and standing high and growing, so that, sometimes block in, sometimes reaching out, one moment your life is a stone in you, and the next, a star.

To the Rugby "Club": Weapons? My butt!

To Men's Soccer Team: It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you look. (Harshness.)

To everyone: "Just R-E-L-A-X!"

"Here's to you, and here's to me.

Friends we are and friends we'll be.

If we shall ever disagree, To hell with you, here's to me!"

...And don't you ever call me "Pooka" again.

To Mom and Dad: All I can say is, "None better!"

"Revelation"

These four years have been filled to the rim with change. My first year, I was alone & I thank Chris Tigani, James Clark, Wild Bill & Stacie for helping me get through it. Year two I became a Christian and found out my clowning talent. I've been growing since then. I want to say to Leigh, Marian, Dave, Davey, A. Scott, Tucker, Alex, Andy, Chris, Misty, Mark, & Ev that I will always pray for you. I hope we will always be one in Christ. Proverbs17:17 "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for Adversity!"

Take care all!

"Moments
when I care about nothing except an apple:
red as a maple tree satin and speckled tart and winy.

Moments
when body is all:
fast as an elevator pulsing out waves of darkness hot as the inner earth molten and greedy.

Moments
when sky fills my head: bluer than thought cleaner than number with a wind fresh and sour cold from the mouth of the sea.

Moments
of sinking my teeth into now like a hungry fox:
never otherwise
am I so cruel;
never otherwise
so happy."

Guilford—you heard, now listen. Jesus died for you. Roy—you know. Alex—my love goes with you brother. Butch—thanks for caring. I'll miss you. Small group—you stole my heart. Totally Stinking Awesome. Paula, Stacie, Chris, Nancy, Allen, Mark, Sara, Debbi, and Dove—you have encouraged me and loved me. I'll see you at the finish line. Scott G.—the answer remains the same. Jesus. Guadalajara Gang—20 years later is only 18 away. Love y'all. Dar and Tara—you're awesome. My professors (especially Dottie)—what patience you have! Tucker—your friendship is a treasured possession that words can't describe. Everybody else—Jesus is the way—thanks for the walks, the food, the love and the friendship. God—only by your grace. Te amo.

At long last, the time has come for me to leave this fine institution of higher learning. These past four years have seen some very interesting experiences, some of them memorable and others, well...

At any rate, no matter how rough the journey has been, it is always hard to say goodbye because "goodbye" makes it all seem so final. So, to avoid the task of having to bear the emotional load that comes at such times as this, I'll simply say:

"Hasta Luego..."

with bodies all silk from underthings to eyebrows legs shaven heels pumiced nails glossed hair lacquered thighs taut eyes clear gladbreasted tittering girls and I wondered how even for an hour

you could love a woman who has no silk no silk only burlap and that well worn tattered

First, the obligatory "Thanks Mom & Dad" (Not that I don't love and care for you two more than the world—it's just so damn unoriginal).

Second, my roommates over the years—Chris Shepard, Jim Kohl, John Krause, Bruce Darby, Andy Moore, Kathleen Fecks, Mark Millsbaugh, Ben Kealy, Greg Caparossi, Matt Cox, & John McCain. Thanks for dealing with me and teaching me so much about relationships.

Third, to all my dear old friends and the new ones I've met along the way—

"On Monday, when the sun is hot,
I wonder to myself a lot:
'Now is it true, or is it not,
That what is which and which is what?'"

On Tuesday, when it hails and snows,
The feeling on me grows and grows
That hardly anybody knows
If those are these or these are those.

On Wednesday, when the sky is blue,
And I have nothing else to do,
I sometimes wonder if it's true
That who is what and what is who.

On Thursday, when it starts to freeze,
And hoar-frost twinkles on the trees,
How very readily one sees
That these are whose—but whose are these?

On Friday—"

It seems like yesterday I began my freshman year. I can't believe four years went by so quickly. Thanks Mom and Dad for the opportunity you allowed me that so many are not fortunate to experience. Words don't express the appreciation I feel for the sacrifices you have made. I want to wish all my friends the best in the future and thank them for all they've taught me about life and relationships. Thanks Guilford for everything!
